

The Daily Courant.

Friday, April 26. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 30.

Rome, April 10.

ON Monday last the Grand Prior of France arriv'd here, and was conducted to the Cardinal de Fourbin's Palace, by that Cardinal himself, who with the Constable Colonna went some Miles out of the City to meet him. The next Day he made a Visit to the Constable Colonna's Lady; and has since receiv'd the Compliments of most of the Cardinals, Princes, and other Persons of Quality on his Arrival. He has desired an Audience of the Pope, but his Holiness has deferr'd giving it till he has clear'd his Hands of certain Affairs of Importance. The Cardinal de Fourbin has begun to take his Visits of Leave of the sacred College and all his Friends; and is preparing to set out on his return to France as soon as the Abbot de la Trimouille, who is nominated to succeed him in the Management of the Affairs of France, arrives from Naples. We have receiv'd certain Advice, that the Inhabitants of the last mention'd City, being abetted by the chief of the Nobility of that Kingdom, have declar'd anew, that they will never acquiesce with the introducing of French Forces into the Castles of Naples; and that the Duke d'Escalona the Viceroy, and the Abbot de la Trimouille, had not dar'd to appear in publick for several Days, for fear of being insulted by the Populace.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 30.

Letters from Poland dated April 16, say King Augustus keeps Men constantly at Work upon the Fortifications of Cracow. The Muscovites had receiv'd Order to march from Grodno, towards Brzeze in Lithuania, and 'twas talk'd the Swedes would likewise decamp from Wilna. The Czar was gone from Minsk to march joyntly with General Mazepa. A Rumour is spread, that the Prince of Furstenberg is to resign the Government of the Electorate of Saxony to the Prince of Saxe Gotha, who has engag'd to put the Troops he has at home into King Augustus's Service.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 2.

Hamburg, April 27. Letters from Poland advise, that the Swedes having attack'd and taken Nieswicz garrison'd by 2500 Cossacks, put 2000 of them to the Sword, and took a great Booty. Prince Alexander Menschikoth having sent Order to General Ogilvy to retire with the Muscovite Army, as well as he could, from Grodno to Tykoczin and so to Brzeze, and to leave behind him whatever might retard him in his Retreat, that General retir'd accordingly, leaving behind him his heavy Artillery, but taking with him his lightest Pieces, and got safe to Tykoczin. The King of Sweden immediately drew his Troops together, with Design 'twas suppos'd to follow the Muscovites. At Carlskroon 5 or 6000 Swedes have been embark'd, for reinforcing their Troops in Poland; and at Stockholm a certain Number of Vessels are taken up, for Transporting Recruits for the said Swedes in Poland.

The Swedes commanded by General Reinschild, guard the Frontier of Upper Poland, and have repair'd the Fortifications of Posnania, in which are 2 of their Regiments: The rest of their Troops are encamp'd at Rawitz, Lissa, Franstad, and Mezerits. The Saxon Horse that have drawn together in Lusatia, have not yet receiv'd Order to march to reinforce King Augustus.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 29.

Hamburg, April 23. The Residents of the Queen of England and of the States General, are gone from hence to reinstate the Prince Administrator of Holstein Gottorp in the Possession of the Castle of Eutin and the Territory of the Bishoprick of Lubeck, with the Consent of the King of Denmark.

They write from Berlin, that Prince Leopold of Anhalt Dessau was arriv'd there, to receive the King of Prussia's last Orders, and then to set out for Italy, to command the Prussian Troops that serve in Prince Eugene's Army. The King of Prussia was to set out from Berlin the 23d of April, for Frankfort on the Oder, to be present at the Solemnization of the Jubile kept by the Academy there.

London, April 26.

By the Mail mention'd in our last to be arriv'd from Lisbon, with Letters dated the 19th Instant N. S. a Copy was transmitted of a Manifesto that had been printed at Lisbon by my Lord Galway's Order, to be sent to him to Alcantara, to be dispers'd in his March from thence towards Madrid; a Translation of which Manifesto has been communicated to us, and is as follows.

Henry Earl of Galway, Baron of Arlington, and General of the Forces of the most Serene Lady, the Queen of Great Britain.

IT Being undoubtedly true, that in all the Progresses of this War, the most Serene Queen of Great Britain my Mistress, and Her Allies, are so far from being Enemies to Spain, that they have sent their Troops and Fleets for no other purpose than to assist the good Spaniards to shake off the Yoke and Domination of France; and to place on the Throne of Spain his most Excellent Majesty King Charles III: To the End therefore that the Spaniards themselves may have the Glory to cooperate in so honourable an Undertaking, as is the Establishing the Liberty and Felicity of their native Country, the said most Serene Queen has been pleas'd to Command me to declare anew Her Royal Pleasure, that I should in Her Name succour and support them: Accordingly by these Presents, I the said Earl declare and publish, That all the Generals, Commanders, Officers, and Soldiers of the Spaniards, of whatsoever Degree they may be, that will leave the Service of the Duke of Anjou, and give all due Obedience to his Catholic tholick Majesty King Charles III, on their repairing to me the foresaid Earl of Galway, shall be maintain'd in the Service of his Catholick Majesty, in the same Posts, Honours, and Degrees, which they had before, without Exception of Persons; and that from the same Hour they shall be paid and maintain'd punctually, according to the Pay they before enjoyed, out of the Treasure which for these Glorious Ends, the said most Serene Queen has caus'd to be remitted to my Order. 'Tis to be hop'd there will be no Spaniard of Reputation, that will not make use of so favourable an Occasion of having the Honour to free their Country from Slavery truly ignominious, and of gaining the peculiar Esteem of their lawful Monarch King Charles III. Dated at Alcantara, April 20. 1706.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.
